New York, Dec. 17.-Paulos Narutes, a Greek from Chicago, sat down on a doorstep in a downtown street shortly before midnight and committed suicide by firing a revolver shot into his head. In his pocket the police found a postal card addressed to his wife at 1513 Ogden avenue, Chicago. As translated it read:

"Beloved-I thought to bring mon-ey and happiness to you and little Paulos; this card brings sorrow and suffering. I need not tell you the story of my pain, for you, beloved, know it too well. Though a man, I must be a coward, for God is not with

CLOSE WATCH ON ORIENTAL SHIPS

San Francisco, Dec. 17 .- Recent disoverles of extensive smuggling of opium and of Chinese immigrants into this port have brought from the authorities an order that vessels from the Orient are henceforth to be placed under watch as soon as they enter the harbor. The customs officers are to be sent out to meet each arriving vessel at the Golden Gate.

Hitherto it has been the practice to allow the boats to come to an an-chor in the stream before sending inspectors aboard, and, in case of a vessel arriving at night, to leave her unguarded until daylight. It is be-lieved that much of the successful smuggling has been carried on by lowering the contraband over the vessel's side before the arrival of the watchers from the immigration bu-reau and the customs department.

NO PLACE FOR STAR POINTER

CHICAGO, Dec. 17 .- Scientific authorities at the University of Chicago have a new problem in natural his tory. The professors are undecided what disposition to make of the hide We have the best for him, at the and bones of the late Star Pointer, which are to be offered to the institution by James A. Murphy, owner of the famous pacer that first negotiated a mile in less than two minutes some thirteen years ago. It is said to be Mr. Murphy's intention to mount the remains of the famous horse and present them to the university. Mem-bers of the various departments of learning at the university were unable to state in what museum of the university the specimen would be placed.

The professors said they knew of no precedents to guide their actions, and asked for time to think it over.

The curators of the Walker museum and the Haskell museum asserted that Star Pointer's skeleton might be out of place in their de-partments. The Valker collection consists of prehistoric bones, eth-nological exhibits and geological for-The racer would hardly find

WHITE WOMAN AND KOREAN UNDER ARREST

Salt Lake, Dec. 17.-Madeline Jolean, 27 years old, a prepossessing white woman, who says she is an actress, and K. H. Ray, aged 29, a Korean laborer, were arrested at 1:30 this morning by Patrolmen Radke

PANAMA TO BE BEAUTIFUL.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The "City Beautiful" idea has reached the 1sth-mus of Panama, according to the last issue of the Canal Record. The president of Panama, as an incident to contract just made with the United States regarding payment for municipal improvements in Colon and Pana ma, has issued a decree making it unlawful to erect any building or structure in either city before the mu-nicipal authorities have completely laid out and improved the section and

The purpose is to prevent the toss ing up of buildings or shacks hig-gledy-piggledy and to insure the ex-tension of the cities on symmetrical and harmonious plans.

TORTURED

Hackensack, N. J., Dec. 17.—A man whose identity the police have been unable to discover, is lying uncon-scious in the hospital at North Hudson, N. J. His body from his ankles to his neck is a mass of burns, while his face and feet are frostbitten by exposure to extreme cold. Absolutely naked and in delirium from pain, the man rushed into a sa-loon near the hospital late last night and dropped unconscious to the floor. The surgeons say he cannot recover and they scarcely hope that he can be revived even sufficiently to give any explanation of his condition.

The police believe he was held up by yeggmen, who stripped him and tortured him over a bonfire in an ef-fort to obtain plunder. His frozen face and feet are probably the result of exposure to the storm after having escaped from his captors.

The surrounding country is being scoured for some trace of his assailants.

When he revived momentarily he was only able to tell his name and murmur weakly: "Burned in fire by men."

Dilcher then relapsed into unconsciousness and later became delirious.

He probably will die.

The man's terrible condition and his disjointed utterances gave rise to the belief that he had fallen victim to a band of railroad tramps who had tor-tured and robbed him and left him in the open to die from his injuries and from exposure. The police today are working on the case and seeking all possible clues as to the identity of

GREAT QUANTITY OF CEMENT USED

Washington, Dec. 17 .- Some idea of the enormous consumption of cement in the construction in the locks and dams of the Panama canal may be gathered from the statement contained in the current issue of the Canal Record, that no less than fifty barrels of cement are obtained daily by the mere shaking out, preparatory to baling and shipment, of the bags in which the cement is brought to the

This saving is all used in the lock construction and in value it pays the wages of the force of men employed in sorting out and returning to the contractors the good bags in which the cement was shipped. The manufacturers allow 8½ cents for each bag returned and they are used over and

HE CA NCOME BACK

Battling Nelson Says the Referee Counted Too Fast; Pictures Bear Him Out.

Chicago, Dec. 17.—Still Jelaring that he was not counted out in his recent San Francisco bout with Owen Moran, Battling Nelson is home today at Hegeswich receiving the condo-lences of the townspeople who once called him mayor.

Nelson's contention is backed up by dispatches from San Francisco, which say that Referee Selig, when the Dane was down, counted only nine, and that the Battler was evidently taking the last second of his time when the words, "You're out!" bawled in his ear, ended the fray. The films of the fight were shown before Jimmy Coffroth and a number of sports. They say that Selig waved his hand nine times—no more— as he tolled off the count. All, however, declared their opinion that Nelson was "all in." Nelson today declared that while he would give every credit to Moran, he would start again in the game and would show the doubters that he was not yet a dead one.

Local followers of the fighting game opine that Hogan is destined to become the champion of his class and have made him a 10 to 8 favorite, with prospects of the price lengthening to 10 to 6 at ring time, which is set for 3 o'clock.

Out of 32 battles Hogan has yet to suffer defeat. 18 of his victories be-
